

Procedure of Futures Account Opening

To open a futures trading account in Chong Hing Commodities & Futures Limited, client needs to open a current account at Chong Hing Bank in advance for settlement purpose. Clients should come to our head office or branches in person to open a futures trading account. In addition, the client needs to provide the following documents for opening a futures trading account:

i. For Individual Client

- Personal identity document (e.g. HKID card or passport) of all account holders
- Address proof for recent 3 months (e.g. Bank statement, water bill, electricity bill or gas bill, etc.)
- Financial condition/ Income proof
(e.g. Tax Revenue Payment Record/ Salary Record for recent 3 months and various assets proof)

ii. For Corporate Client

1. Business Registration Certificate
2. Certificate of Incorporation
3. Memorandum and Articles of Association
4. Recent auditorial 'Profit & Loss Statement' and 'Balance Sheet'
5. Recent management accounting statement
6. Individual Guarantee Letter from the company chairman and at least one executive director.
7. Minutes from board of director meeting with approval for the company to open a futures trading account in CHCF. The minutes also need to include the name and title of all authorized persons of the company to operate the futures trading account.
8. HKID copies of all the authorized staffs who operate the future trading account.

For enquiry of account opening, please call 3768 9988.